- Fight identity theft
When checks are "in the mail" as they are when ordered from third party providers, they are vulnerable to theft from shipping point to mailbox. Offer the option to pick them up at your branches.
- Receive checkbooks quickly
Third party check providers take too long to deliver. In-House Check Printing solutions let you deliver next day - even same day
- Consistent check costs
Third-party providers keep raising prices and delivering fewer checks per order. In-House Check Printing allows us to hold the line on quantity and price.
- Assure quality
Customers need to know that when they write a check, it will clear. In-House Checks guarantees top check quality.
